

ABSTRACT

This invention enables the repair of cardiac function by noninvasive administration of an HGF gene in the form of Sendai virus (HVJ)-liposome into the affected cardiac muscle, thereby inducing angiogenesis of the cardiac muscle layer and repressing fibrosis.